

HOA Ombudsman Office to Present Summer Series

PROVIDING EDUCATION ABOUT HOMEOWNER ASSOCIATIONS

The office of the ombudsman is offering a free summer series of classes during the months of June, July and August.

The summer series will consist of classes that are designed to explain the basics of homeowners associations and answer many common questions regarding meetings, elections, recordkeeping, and the roles and responsibilities of various participants in HOAs.

Classes will be held during the weekdays at noon in the Grant Sawyer Building. For more information, contact the ombudsman's office at 702-486-4480.

Class schedule is available online at: www.red.state.nv.us/cic/cic.htm

“Homeowners Associations, Homeowners and other Common Interest Communities can benefit greatly from these seminars.”

Ombudsman Education Section

2501 East Sahara Ave
Las Vegas, NV 89104

(702) 486-4480

www.red.state.nv.us

- Fiscal Matters
- Reserve Studies
- Responsibilities
- Owner Rights
- Board of Directors
- Officers
- Education

Register for free classes:
702.486.4480